The Best Remedy for Rheumatism. From the Fairhaven (N. Y.) Register. James Rowland of this village, states that for twenty-five years his wife has been a sufferer from rheumatism.

His wife did not approve of Mr. Rowland's purchase at first, but nevertheless applied the Balm thoroughly, and in an hour's time was able to go to sleep. She now applies it whenever she feels an ache or a pain and finds that it always gives relief. He says that no medicine which she had used ever did her as much good. I commenced taking your Sparagus Kidney Pills about four weeks ago, and to say I have received great benefits from sherr use is putting it midnly. When I began to take them the pain in my right leg and in my back was so severe I cound get no rest night of day, while I was unable to pass a gill of water in twenty-four hours. Now the pain has left me entirely, and I make as much water as I didbefore I had the "gilp," which left my kindsys in such a weak, enfectied and enervated condition I despaired of all nopes of ever being well again. s feetied and enervated condition I des-paired of all nopes of ever using well again, until one day I read in the paper that your pills would be given away (at least for a lew days). I tried them and then took two boxes more, and feet safe in saying my trouble has left me, and I sleep like a top, and eat like a pig. When a man has any serious trouble with hiskidneys as I nave and, and has for years tried at kinds of kidney medicines without getting any benefit from them, it is natural if he tries a new remedy and it cures his pains and aches, he should say a word in its favor. I have nad kidney troubles and backacke so long that I don't know when they commenced. But I do know that and I bought some of Dr. Hobbs Sparagus Kidney Fills and used them faithfully. I never had such relief from pains and kidney weakness as I have now. I consider Hobbs Sparagus Kidney trouble. JOHN P. BARKSDALE, Vinton, Va. ney Trouble.
